"LET THE FLOWERS SPEAK"

PRELUDE

DOXOLOGY:

From all that dwell below the skies
Let songs of hope and faith arise;
Let peace, good-will on earth be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

OPENING WORDS

Narrator

CALL TO THE CELEBRATION OF SPRING

Narrator

PRESENTATION OF CONGREGATION'S FLOWERS

LET THE FLOWERS SPEAK.....of Springtime

HYMN NO. 23 (Verses 1, 4, and 5)

PRESENTATION OF FLOWERS BY CHILDREN 1 THROUGH 8 YEARS

LET THE FLOWERS SPEAK..... of Jesus

HYMN NO. 309

LET THE FLOWERS SPEAK OF ..... OUR Church

OFFERTORY

LET THE FLOWERS SPEAK..... OF Life's Seasons

RESPONSIVE AFFIRMATION (all standing)

Narrator: Beautiful are the youth whose rich emotions flash and burn, whose lithe bodies filled with energy and grace sway in their happy dance of life;

Congregation: AND BEAUTIFUL LIKEWISE ARE THE MATURE WHO HAVE LEARNED COMPASSION AND PATIENCE, CHARITY, AND WISDOM, THOUGH THEY ARE RARER FAR THAN BEAUTIFUL YOUTH.

Narrator: But most beautiful and most rare is a gracious old age which has drawn from life the skill to take its varied strands, the harsh advance of age, the pang of grief, the loss of strength, and with fresh insight weave them into a rich and gracious pattern all its own.

Congregation: THIS IS THE GREATEST SKILL OF ALL, TO TAKE THE BITTER WITH THE SWEET AND MAKE IT BEAUTIFUL, TO TAKE THE WHOLE OF LIFE IN ALL ITS MOODS, ITS STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES, AND OF THE WHOLE MAKE ONE GREAT AND CELESTIAL HARMONY.

SONG BY THE CHILDREN: "For the Beauty of the Earth"

PRAYER OF DEDICATION:

CLOSING HYMN OF DEDICATION NO. 174

(During this hymn two young people will go down the aisle distributing flowers. Each person is invited to take a flower, different from the one he has brought as a symbol of friendship and love. The congregation is asked to remain seated until the Postlude is completed. All are invited to remain after the service for the fellowship hour.)

PROGRAM FOR SUNDAY, AUGUST 25, 1968 - 10:30 a.m.

SUBJECT: "Death and Identity"

SPEAKER: Pat Sharpe

Pat Sharpe is a graduate of the Guilford Technical Institute Nursing Program. She has been a member of the Unitarian Church of Greensboro for nearly three years and a teacher in our Religious Education Program for a year.

Mrs. Sharpe will deliver a lecture and solicit discussion from the group.

Last Sunday's program was a talk by David Maynard on "The Selective Service System and Draft Counseling". David made very clear what the objectives of draft counseling were - refuting the general opinion that the American Friends Service Committee advocated the exodus to foreign lands and the burning of draft cards. The discussion following the coffee break was so stimulating and absorbing, Mr. Stelmack had to call time or we might still be there.

BENEDICTION
(Buddhist)

All creatures weak or strong,	Peace be unto the heavens,
Great or small,	Peace be unto the earth.
Seen or unseen,	Peace be unto the herbs,
Near or far,	Peace be unto the great trees,
May all be blessed with peace.	Peace be unto the brotherhood
Let all-embracing thoughts	of life.
For all that lives be thine.	Peace be unto the God of the universe.
	Peace be unto all.

Responsive Reading:

Leader: Where do you look for me?

Congregation: In gospels old, in structures called churches.

Leader: You will not find me there in musty gospels old,
Nor churches cold as stone is cold.

Congregation: Where shall we find you?

Leader: In city streets where all men walk.
I am walking with those who lie and steal and curse and cheat; the old all bent, but most of all with the young. They've got the soul.
